A SELECTION OF THIS WEEK'S PRACTICE COMMENTS

111 making appointments at night for the next day for the surgery to action when children and chest pain symptoms are getting more and more of these and the reports don't give us much more information so we are having to contact the patients to get more information.

We currently have a reduced nursing team due to illness and are struggling to keep on top of our QOF targets. We are trying to source additional nursing input to help cover the shortfall.
